Connecticut.--From Addison Moore Circle, New Haven, comes a report which indicates a wideawake organization. Sarah E. Briggs, 96, the leader, sends a letter in which she says: Our attendance has been almost perfect. Each member, with one exception, has been punctual, so no time has been lost waiting for stragglers. I assign a set of questions to each member, who prepares a twominute paper on the book review. These papers have been very helpful in many ways. Each one feels a responsibility to be present and read his paper so as not to break the review, and each one has reached the place where he does not turn pale when I ask for a paper on some other subject. We are proud of our three men, who are as interested as Shakespeare...
