My Dear Lord, The return of Buonaparte to France has induced several Gentlemen of the greatest influence in the County, who served as Officers in the late Corps of Dorset Yeomanry, to do me the honour of mentioning to me their readiness to endeavour to raise a similar Corps, and again to put themselves under my command should such a measure be deem d necessary. I have thought it my duty to state this circumstance to your Lordship and to assure you of my willingness to undertake such a command, and of my utmost exertions, should the services of such a Corps be required, and should your Lordship think proper to place me in that position. Having thus put your Lordship in possession of our sentiments on this point, I will take the liberty of...
