What about the Hair Down There? (Hardback)

By Abby Brown

Blooming Twig Books (NY), United States, 2014. Hardback.
Book Condition: New. 231 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What if Lake Wobegon's favorite teacher were diagnosed with cancer? What About the Hair Down There? Chemo Chuckles and Treatment Tears: One Woman's Story of Family, Friends, Love and Sex After Being Diagnosed with Breast Cancer is the autobiographical story of Abby Brown, a 25-year veteran educator in the little elementary school on a hill perched above the St. Croix River in Minnesota -a teacher who has been beloved by two generations of school children in the small town upon which Garrison Keillor largely based his fictional Lake Wobegon. When she was diagnosed with breast cancer, the entire town took to the Caring Bridge website to support every step of her discovery and recovery. Both witty and wistful, terrifying and beautiful, this is not just a cancer journal. It's a secret guide both to the horrors of cancer treatment, and to the incredible power and stability of true love -both familial and romantic. Although this doesn't read like a romance novel, Abby's at-times gritty, at times steamy, love for her...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This publication is great. It is full of wisdom and knowledge. You will not really feel monotony at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for relating to when you ask me).
