The Medicare home health benefit provides coverage for home visits by skilled health care professionals. To be eligible for the home health benefit, a beneficiary must meet three different criteria. The beneficiary must be homebound, require intermittent skilled nursing care and/or skilled rehabilitation services, and be under the care of a physician who has established that the home health visits are medically necessary in a 60-day plan of care. This book describes home health eligibility criteria, home health services, characteristics of Medicare beneficiaries who use home health services, and home health providers.
